Farmingville, NY - On April 24, Councilwoman Jane Bonner joined local residents and members of the Sound Beach Civic Association (SBCA) to celebrate the installation of the new welcome sign located at Shinnecock Drive and Echo Avenue. The sign was funded by the Town with a Federal Community Development Block Grant provided through the Suffolk County Consortium.

"I am very happy that we were able to get this new sign installed welcoming visitors to Sound Beach," said Councilwoman Bonner. "Our Department of Housing and Human Services was very responsive when I made the initial request and I thank them for working to bring it to fruition. It's a beautiful addition to the landscape of this community."
