Farmingville, NY - On April 5, Councilwoman Jane Bonner attended the North Shore Little League (NSLL) Opening Day Ceremonies at their field. The league, which was established in 1963, offers boys and girls, ages six through sixteen, the opportunity to play organized baseball and softball with their peers at fields on Route 25A in Rocky Point. Pictured back row left to right are Coach Ralph Menechino, Drew Martin, NSLL Past President Burke Kincaid, Assemblyman Anthony Palumbo, NSLL President Gary Catalanotto (fourth from left) County Legislator Sarah Anker, State Senator Ken LaValle, and Councilwoman Jane Bonner. Councilwoman Bonner said, "There's no better way to spend a beautiful spring day than opening day of the Little League season. These children wait all winter to get started and you can really feel their enthusiasm. Thanks to the North Shore Little League volunteers and all the parents who help make every season fun for the children."
