Farmingville, NY - On Saturday, January 18, Councilwoman Jane Bonner (right) joined family members and friends of Sadie Liantonio (left) to celebrate her 100th birthday at East Wind in Wading River. Sadie resides in Rocky Point where she is an active member of the community who has volunteered at Mather Hospital for over 22 years. She also crochets hats for newborn babies at St. Charles Hospital.

"I congratulate Sadie for reaching this milestone and for her many years of service to the community," said Councilwoman Bonner. "Her youthful spirit, zest for life and concern for her neighbors are good examples for all of us to follow."
