Farmingville, NY - Councilwoman Jane Bonner (right) and Eileen Gerle, the Town's Environmental Educator (left) visited Cedar Beach in Mt. Sinai to thank Boy Scout Kyle Cullin (center) for constructing two Chimney Swift towers as his Eagle Service project. Kyle is a senior at Mt. Sinai High School and a member of Boy Scout Troop 204 in Miller Place.

"Cedar Beach is a wonderful refuge for nature lovers to enjoy and we are blessed with a wide range of wildlife that thrives in the harbor and along the shoreline," said Councilwoman Bonner. "The area has served as a home to the Chimney Swift for many years and I thank Kyle for doing his part by making it more welcoming for them."
