

Rocky Point Community Rings In Holiday Spirit

posted on 12/12/2013 5:19:05 PM

December 12, 2013

(left to right) Superintendent Dan Losquadro, Rocky Point Rotary President Jeff Hulse, Councilwoman Jane Bonner, long time tree lighting participant Linda Albo and Supervisor Ed Romaine

Rocky Point, NY - The cold weather was no match for the holiday spirit in Rocky Point. Neighbors shared hugs and stories while waiting for the countdown to the Christmas tree lighting taking place off of Broadway on Saturday, December 7. The Trinity Ringers from Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church delighted the crowd with music as friends and families snapped photos to capture their special moments.

"I look forward to this event every year," said Daniel P. Losquadro, Brookhaven Town Superintendent of Highways. "It is a jubilant feeling to walk through the crowd and see so many familiar, smiling faces. I wish everyone a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year."

"The people of Rocky Point really know how to kick-off the holiday season," said Supervisor Romaine. "It was great to see so many families enjoying the evening and I was happy to have the opportunity to celebrate this special event with them."

"There is nothing better than bringing in the holidays with my neighbors," said Councilwoman Jane Bonner, who led the countdown to the Christmas tree lighting. "Residents in Rocky Point are extremely hard working and this event provides an opportunity for everyone in the community to spend time with one another, and that is what the holidays are really all about."

Daniel P. Losquadro * Highway Superintendent

1140 Old Town Road • Coram • NY 11727 • Phone (631) 451-9200 • Fax (631) 732-2584