"It was a beautiful day to be on the beach," said Councilwoman Bonner. "The Property Owners Association has a rich history in Sound Beach and I thank them for their many years of community service."

"The Sound Beach Property Owners Association has been making a positive impact in this community for a very long time," Superintendent Losquadro said. "I am fortunate to have this group of concerned residents to work with towards accomplishing quality of life issues in Sound Beach."

Founded in 1929, the SBPOA is a community-based organization with a broad scope of duties benefiting their members and the residents of Sound Beach.
