Farmingville, NY - On June 23, Councilwoman Jane Bonner and Highway Superintendent Dan Losquadro celebrated with residents and vendors at the Rocky Point Farmers Market ribbon cutting ceremony. The farmer's market is held every Sunday at Old Depot Park, located at the intersection of Prince Road and Broadway in Rocky Point. Pictured with shoppers and vendors are Councilwoman Jane Bonner (left), Highway Superintendent Dan Losquadro (fourth from right) and County Legislator Sarah Anker (second from right).

"It was a beautiful day to shop at the farmers market and see so many familiar faces enjoying the first weekend of summer," said Councilwoman Bonner. "Now, people can stay right in Rocky Point to buy their fresh produce, crafts and other items while supporting local farmers and artisans."

At the May 21 Board Meeting, the Town Board voted unanimously to adopt Councilwoman Jane Bonner's resolution that authorizes the Rocky Point Farmer's Market to operate at the Town's Old Depot Park as a co-sponsorship between the Rocky Point Civic Association and the Town. The event is classified as a "program for public good" which qualifies it for coverage under the Town of Brookhaven Programs for Public Good insurance.
