Farmingville, NY - Brookhaven Supervisor Ed Romaine, Highway Superintendent Dan Losquadro, Councilwoman Jane Bonner and New York State Senator Ken LaValle joined hundreds of local families on Saturday morning, April 6, for the North Shore Little League's 50th Annual Opening Day Ceremony. The league, which was established in 1963, offers boys and girls, ages six through sixteen the opportunity to play organized baseball and softball with their peers at fields on Route 25A in Rocky Point. The league hosted the 2012 twelve-year-old New York State Championship Tournament. For more information about the league, call 744-3355.
