Farmingville, NY - On Sunday, February 10 from 12:00 noon to 3:00 pm, the Town of Brookhaven Animal Shelter and Adoption Center will celebrate Valentine's Day a few days early by hosting "Love is in the Air" so residents who are looking to adopt a pet can come and meet their new best friend. Pets that are adopted at the event will receive low cost micro chipping and a free collar (supplies limited). Light refreshments will be served. All pets adopted from the Animal Shelter are spayed and neutered. The adoption fee for dogs includes the four in one vaccination, rabies inoculation and license.

Councilwoman Jane Bonner, who serves as Town Board Liaison to the Animal Shelter said, "This is the perfect time for families to find love at the Animal Shelter. As a pet-owner myself, I can assure you that when you find the right pet, the love you give will be returned ten fold. Thanks to everyone at the shelter for all they do to get these animals adopted."

Supervisor Romaine said, "I commend Maureen Schneider and her staff for the work they do to take care of and find a home for the cats and dogs at the Animal Shelter. Events like this give people the opportunity to experience the unconditional love and companionship that only a pet can bring to a loving family."

The Animal Shelter is open Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday from 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. (Closed Wednesdays), Saturday from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. and Sunday from 12:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. It is located at 300 Horseblock Road in Brookhaven, New York, 11719.
