Farmingville, NY - On Saturday, January 26, the Brookhaven Animal Shelter and Adoption Center will hold a "Hot Chocolate and Fun Day" event to give visitors a chance to meet many of the adoptable dogs and cats currently living at the shelter. The event will run from 12:00 noon to 3:00 pm and include free hot chocolate and face painting for children and the young at heart.

Supervisor Romaine said, "This is a wonderful opportunity for anyone who is thinking about adopting a pet to come down to the Animal Shelter and meet our cats and dogs. These animals have so much to give and hopefully some will be adopted and brought home to a loving family."

Councilwoman Jane Bonner, who serves as the Town Council Liaison to the Animal Shelter said, "I encourage everyone who loves animals and wants to adopt a pet to visit the Animal Shelter during this event or anytime. These animals really need to be in a home where they can be part of a family."

All pets adopted from the Animal Shelter are spayed and neutered. Dogs receive a free four in one vaccination, rabies inoculation and license, and are eligible for six free group training classes.

The Animal Shelter is open Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday from 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. (Closed Wednesdays), Saturday from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. and Sunday from 12:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. It is located at 300 Horseblock Road in Brookhaven, New York, 11719.
