Farmingville, NY – On October 24, Councilman Kevin LaValle visited Centereach High School to honor Student of the Month, Troy Lee. In addition to being a strong student academically, Troy is also the president of the National Honor Society, student director for the Men's Choir, a member of the Thespian Honor Society and a member of the Spanish Honor Society. He has passed and done well in four Advanced Placement (AP) courses prior to his senior year, and is taking an additional six college level courses in his senior year. Troy has been recognized by the College Board as an AP Scholar with honors based on his success in his advance placement exams. Furthermore, last year he was the recipient of the Rensselaer Medal in recognition of his outstanding academic achievements.

"It was a pleasure to meet with Troy, and honor him as the Council District 3 Student of the Month for October," said Councilman LaValle, "Troy exemplifies an all-around exceptional student leader and I wish him the best of luck as he finishes his high school career and moves on to college."
