Farmingville, NY – On October 25, Councilman Kevin LaValle visited three leadership classes at Centereach High School. The Councilman spoke to them about the importance of civic engagement, taking an active role in their community, and that our youth do have a voice in our system of government.

“Thank you to the Middle Country School District, Centereach High School Principal Mr. Bell, and Social Studies Chair Mrs. Strong for the opportunity to speak with the students,” said Councilman LaValle. “It was a pleasure to discuss the importance of civic engagement with the student leaders of the school.”
