Farmingville, NY – On November 5, Councilman Kevin LaValle was honored by Centereach VFW Post 4927 at the 71st Annual Gold Chevron Ball. The Councilman was recognized for his "long-standing commitment and unwavering support." The annual event helps to raise money for the post while also honoring veterans.

"I was both humbled and honored to be recognized by the post for the work I do with the veteran community," said Councilman LaValle. "Thank you to all the men and women who served and who are currently serving our great nation. You all are truly our heroes."
