Farmingville, NY – On May 11, Councilman Kevin LaValle joined Suffolk County Legislators Tom Muratore and Leslie Kennedy at the Middle Country Public Library and Miller Business Resource Center's Third Annual Women's Resource Fair at the library's Centereach location. Vendors who participated provide goods and services geared specifically toward women, including spa services, health and wellness, legal assistance, financial and career planning.

"This is a wonderful program that the Middle Country Library and the Miller Business Resource Center hold each year." said Councilman LaValle said, " It was great bringing together different resources to assist the women of our community and it was my pleasure to attend.
