

Councilman Kevin LaValle Unveils Historic Map of Town's Third Council District

posted on 8/17/2017 9:10:00 AM

Farmingville, NY – On Monday, August 14, Councilman Kevin LaValle unveiled his Brookhaven Town Third District Historic Map. Councilman LaValle joined together at the historic Bald Hill School to unveil the map, which is an effort to preserve and honor the rich and important history of this area. The map was put together with the Councilman and input from local historians from various community groups. The map can be viewed at www.brookhavenny.gov/cd3map .

Pictured above (l to r) - Suffolk County Legislator Tom Muratore; Ellyn Okvist President, Lake Ronkonkoma Heritage Association; Evelyn Vollgraff, President, Lake Ronkonkoma Historical Society & Lake Ronkonkoma Improvement Group; Mr. Vollgraff of the Lake Ronkonkoma Improvement Group; Helen Mulvihill, Lake Ronkonkoma Heritage Association, Farmingville Historical Society;

BJ Intini, President, Farmingville Historical Society; Barbara Russell, Town of Brookhaven Historian; and Councilman Kevin LaValle.

"The new map is a great source of information now available to Brookhaven residents," said Councilman Kevin LaValle. "I want to especially thank Town Historian Barbara Russell and our local historians, whose hard work and dedication to preserving Brookhaven's heritage is greatly appreciated."

Division of Public Information * Office of the Supervisor

One Independence Hill • Farmingville • NY 11738 • Phone 631-451-6595