

Councilwoman Bonner Honors Rocky Point Civic Member Linda Cathcart

posted on 5/15/2012 4:32:22 PM

May 14, 2012

Pictured from left to right are Linda Cathcart, Councilwoman Jane Bonner, and Rocky Point Civic Association President Charles Bevington.

Farmingville, NY - On April 3, Councilwoman Jane Bonner was in attendance for a meeting of the Rocky Point Civic Association to honor Rocky Point resident and civic association member Linda Cathcart. At the meeting, Councilwoman Bonner presented Linda with a certificate of appreciation and a proclamation from the Town of Brookhaven.

"For over twenty years, Linda has been an invaluable asset to the Rocky Point community," said Councilwoman Bonner, "Her impact is felt throughout the area, whether she's cleaning up Hallock Cemetery or planting flowers at Old Depot Memorial Park. I thank Linda for her strong commitment to make Rocky Point a more beautiful place for our residents and visitors."

Linda became a permanent resident of Rocky Point in 1982, although her family has lived there since 1950. She has been a member of the Rocky Point Civic Association for twenty years, serving as Membership Secretary for many of those years. Linda has also been a member of the Rocky Point Historical Society since its inception, and currently serves as its treasurer. Linda also served as Membership Secretary for the North Shore Beach Owner's Association for ten years.

Division of Public Information * Office of the Supervisor

One Independence Hill • Farmingville • NY 11738 • Phone (631) 451-6595 • Fax (631) 451-6258