Farmingville, NY - On April 14, Councilwoman Jane Bonner attended the North Shore Little League Opening Day Ceremonies at the North Shore Little League Field in Rocky Point. In honor of their opening day ceremonies, the Councilwoman presented the North Shore Little League with a Certificate of Congratulations.

Councilwoman Bonner said, "There's no better way to spend a beautiful spring day than opening day of the Little League season. These children wait all winter to get started and you can really feel their enthusiasm on opening day. Thanks to the North Shore Little League volunteers and all the parents who help make every season fun for the children."
