Farmingville, NY - On April 12, Deputy Supervisor / Councilwoman Kathleen Walsh and Councilwoman Jane Bonner were in attendance for the Thirteenth Annual Brookhaven Chambers of Commerce Coalition Outstanding Member of the Year Awards Reception held at The Meadow Club in Port Jefferson Station. The coalition is a not-for-profit business organization that features representatives from the twenty Chambers of Commerce within the Town of Brookhaven. Every April, the coalition holds an award ceremony for each chamber to honor an outstanding member of their community.

"I would like to congratulate all of those recognized for their contributions to the Brookhaven business community," said Councilwoman Walsh, "I look forward to continuing to work together with all of the members of the coalition to preserve a healthy environment for businesses within the Town of Brookhaven."

Councilwoman Bonner said "The BCCC is a great organization that provides an outlet for members of the business community to address issues affecting the entire community. I applaud the award recipients for their hard work to help Brookhaven continue to prosper. "

The following members were honored by their respective Chambers :

Bellport - Jimmy Avino

Farmingville Hills - Ann Marie Horn and Michael Wentz
