Farmingville, NY - On June 16, Supervisor Mark Lesko, Councilwoman Jane Bonner, and Tax Receiver Louis Marcoccia honored the outgoing officers and presided over the swearing in ceremony of the new officers of the Shoreham Senior Citizen Club at their annual installation luncheon at Lombardi's on the Sound in Port Jefferson.

"The Shoreham Senior Citizen club is a vital part of the community and I am grateful for their work to improve the quality of life of our senior residents," said Supervisor Lesko, "I thank all of the outgoing board members for their service and I wish the incoming members the best of luck."

"It was a pleasure to spend time with the Shoreham Senior Citizen Club. They are a very special group of people who do so much good in the community," said Councilwoman Jane Bonner, "Congratulations to the new officers and my sincere thanks to the outgoing officers for their service."

"I always welcome the chance to meet senior groups and those who worked so hard to make Brookhaven Town a better place to live," said Receiver of Taxes Louis Marcoccia, "Our seniors need to be recognized for their important contributions to the quality of life we continue to enjoy throughout our town."
