Farmingville, NY - At a recent Town Board meeting, Councilwoman Jane Bonner joined Supervisor Mark Lesko and the Town Board to honor Boy Scout Troop 433 from Middle Island for their work cleaning litter from Sequoia Park in Coram. "The Boy Scouts of America are a great organization and they do so much for the community," said Councilwoman Bonner, "I'm proud of the boys from Troop 433 who took the time to help make Sequoia Park a cleaner and more enjoyable place for people to enjoy."

"I thank Troop 433 for their dedication to making Brookhaven a better place for everyone," said Supervisor Lesko, "These young men are examples for their peers and show how young people can really make a difference in the community."
