Farmingville, NY - On December 11, Councilwoman Jane Bonner and Supervisor Mark Lesko were guests at the annual North Shore Colts Football Brunch at the East Wind Caterers in Wading River. The Councilwoman and Supervisor presented certificates of appreciation to the dedicated volunteers of the organization. The North Shore Colts is a youth football and cheerleading league for ages 6-12, which represents the local school districts of Comsewogue, Miller Place, Mount Sinai and Port Jefferson.

"The North Shore Colts volunteers do such a great job and are extremely dedicated to the children who participate in their programs," said Councilwoman Bonner. "What they teach the children on the field about team work and sportsmanship will certainly help guide them throughout their lives."

"I commend those who volunteer their time and talent in support of the North Shore Colts and thank them for their commitment to the children of the community," said Supervisor Lesko, "It is important for adults to get involved and teach these young athletes about good sportsmanship." Lesko played football in high school and college.
