Farmingville, NY - On October 19, Supervisor Mark Lesko and Councilwoman Jane Bonner were on hand at a ribbon cutting to celebrate the grand opening of Gio's Pizzeria at 512 Route 25 in Coram. The new restaurant, owned and operated by Kyle Markott serves a wide range of Italian food from pizza to pasta.

"This restaurant is a great addition to the Coram business district which continues to grow and prosper. I congratulate Kyle on his new endeavor and wish him the best of luck," said Supervisor Lesko.

"I'm always happy to see a new business open its doors in our community," said Councilwoman Bonner. "I urge residents to stop by and sample some of the great food that Gio's has to offer."
