Farmingville, NY - Supervisor Mark Lesko and the Brookhaven Town Board proclaimed July 26, 2010 as "ADA Awareness Day," in recognition of the 20th Anniversary of the Americans with Disabilities Act. The proclamation was made during the July 20th board meeting at Town Hall. In addition to the proclamation, three town of Brookhaven employees and two Brookhaven town residents were recognized with certificates of appreciation for their contributions to help promote the ADA in the Brookhaven community. "The Americans with Disabilities Act has helped to protect individuals with disabilities against discrimination in our society and has enabled them to live more productive lives," said Supervisor Lesko, "I applaud the efforts of those that we honor today for their dedication and service to our residents with disabilities. We have all benefited from this landmark civil rights legislation."
