MILLER PLACE, NY - Brookhaven Town Councilwoman Jane Bonner recently joined the owners of Benten Japanese restaurant for the grand opening of their new location on Route 25A in Miller Place. The restaurant, which was originally located in Mt. Sinai, was able to expand at the new location.

"With so many small business owners struggling in this economy, it's wonderful to see a local restaurant like Benten succeed and grow," said Councilwoman Bonner. "Small businesses are the backbone of our community. It's important to support these Main Street, downtown businesses in our neighborhoods, that are owned and operated by our neighbors."
