

Councilwoman Bonner Speaks With Miller Place Students About Recycling

posted on 4/27/2009 8:37:14 AM

Brookhaven Town Councilwoman Jane Bonner (r.) and Town Recycling Educator Rosemary Wiesner (l.) speak with students at the Miller Place School District's North Country Middle School.

MILLER PLACE, NY - Brookhaven Town Councilwoman Jane Bonner recently spoke with the members of the North Country Middle School student government in Miller Place about the importance of recycling, and new efforts to increase recycling in Brookhaven schools. Councilwoman Bonner was joined by Town recycling Educator Rosemary Wiesner in teaching the students about the importance of reducing our waste stream, reusing items instead of throwing them away, and recycling as much of our garbage as possible.

Pictured above are ((rear, l. to r.) Assistant Principal Bob Neidig, Councilwoman Jane Bonner and student government advisors Ally Mongo, Joe Pagano and Pam Marcott; (front, l. to r.) Melissa Perry, Gabrielle Salgado, Emma Franzese, Barbara Chatterton, Rosemary Wiesner, Patrick Payne, Kevin Reidlinger, and Rourke Feinburg.

Division of Public Information * Office of the Town Council

One Independence Hill • Farmingville • NY 11738 • Phone (631) 451-6595 • Fax (631) 451-6258