Farmingville, NY – On February 10, Supervisor Ed Romaine (center) and Councilwoman Valerie M. Cartright attended the Setauket Fire Department's Annual Installation Dinner at Villa Lombardi's in Holbrook. During the event, the Supervisor and Councilwoman honored the company's members for their service to the Setauket community and presented Certificates of Congratulations from the Town Board to members with Years of Service Milestones.

Supervisor Romaine said, "I commend the members of the Setauket Fire Department who give so much of their time to community service. We all owe them a large debt of gratitude for their dedication, training and hard work which helps to save countless lives every year."

Councilwoman Cartright said, "It is my privilege to participate in the installation each year, and to continue the tradition of acknowledging the members and their families for their service and all they have sacrificed for the community."
