Farmingville, NY – On February 11, Supervisor Ed Romaine (center) and Councilmember Valerie M. Cartright (left) attended Stony Brook Fire Department's Annual Installation Dinner at Flowerfield in St. James to honor the company's members for their service to the community. Certificates of Congratulations from the Town Board were presented to 2016 Members of the Year, members with Year of Service milestones and outgoing officers. Pictured at right is Ex-Chief Ernest Rositzke, who was honored for his 60 years of service.

Supervisor Romaine said, "I commend the members of the Stony Brook Fire Department who give so much of their time to community service. We all owe them a large debt of gratitude for their dedication, training and hard work which helps to save countless lives every year."

"It is always a pleasure to celebrate the members of Stony Brook Fire Department and their years of dedication to the community," said Councilmember Cartright. "We thank the firefighters and emergency personnel who volunteer their time to protect our residents. You are a valued part of our community."
