

Supervisor Romaine and Councilwoman Cartright Attend the Cumsewogue Historical Society Open House

posted on 4/30/2015 3:55:17 PM

April 30, 2015

Farmingville, NY - On Saturday, April 18, Supervisor Ed Romaine and Councilwoman Valerie M. Cartright attended the Cumsewogue Historical Society's Open House. The Cumsewogue Historical Society (CHS) was formed in 2008 and chartered by the State of New York in 2009. It is dedicated to promoting and disseminating a greater knowledge among the public of Terryville and Port Jefferson Station history.

Supervisor Romaine said, "The Terryville and Port Jefferson area has a rich history dating back to the earliest days of Brookhaven Town. I commend the Comsewogue Historical Society for helping to share that history and preserve it for future generations."

"The Cumsewogue Historical Society has developed an outstanding collection of materials that showcase the diverse history of the Terryville and Port Jefferson Station communities. This first open house was an excellent opportunity to allow community members and the public to view this collection and learn about the vibrant history of the area" said Councilwoman Cartright. "Thank you to the CHS for their efforts over the last seven years and we look forward to continuing to work with them."

Left photo: (left to right) Supervisor Ed Romaine, CHS President Jack Smith and CHS Recording Secretary Joan Nickerson.

Right photo: (left to right) CHS Recording Secretary Joan Nickeson, CHS President Jack Smith, Councilwoman Valerie M. Cartright, CHS Vice President/Archivist Virginia Antonucci-Gibbons and CHS Corresponding Secretary Janet Fenstermacher.

Division of Public Information * Office of the Supervisor

One Independence Hill • Farmingville • NY 11738 • Phone 631-451-6595