Farmingville, NY - Councilman Kevin LaValle (right) and "Curby," the Town's recycling mascot, joined volunteers at the Town's Selden Dog Park for the 8th Annual Great Brookhaven Clean Up. More than 2600 people participated in the clean up which was held on Saturday, May 16 at over 100 locations throughout Brookhaven Town. It was co-sponsored by the Town of Brookhaven's Department of Waste Management and Keep America Beautiful, Inc. The Annual Great Brookhaven Clean Up is part of a national effort that draws nearly 2.5 million volunteers in more than 15,000 communities across America who came together to pick up litter, renew parks, and clean miles of roadway, rivers, lakes, and seashore.

Councilman LaValle said, "Selden residents take great pride in their community and I'd like to thank them for helping to make the Great Brookhaven Clean-Up such a success. This event is a reminder of how important it is for residents to share the responsibility of keeping Brookhaven beautiful."
