Farmingville, NY - On August 7, Brookhaven Town Councilman Kevin LaValle (left) and Suffolk County Legislator Tom Muratore (right) met with Ann Pellegrino (center), Vice President and Founder of Bethel Hobbs Community Farm in Centereach, location of the upcoming first annual Run the Farm 4 Mile Challenge. This USA Track and Field-sanctioned community event is scheduled for Saturday, August 22 at 9:00 am and will start and finish at the 11-acre farm. All proceeds of the race benefit the farm that provides fresh wholesome produce to those in need. It is also an educational place for local businesses, schools and other organizations to volunteer and to improve the quality of life in our community. For more information about Bethel Hobbs Farm, go to www.hobbsfarm.info.

There are still opportunities for individuals, organizations or businesses to act as Run the Farm 4 Mile Challenge 2015 sponsors. In return for a monetary donation or volunteered services, Run the Farm 4 Mile Challenge sponsors receive a number of advertising opportunities before, during, and after the race. The degree of advertising space is contingent upon the amount pledged. The online sponsorship form details the levels of sponsorship and the promotional opportunities afforded at each increment.

Go to www.brookhaven.org/runthefarm for event details, registration form, sponsorship application and a list of current sponsors, or call Councilman LaValle's office at 631-451-6647 for more information.
