"I congratulate the new Officers and Board Members and look forward to working with them as we continue to build a stronger community by focusing on business development and economic empowerment," Councilwoman Cartright stated. "This swearing in, which took place on Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day, is a reminder of Dr. King's words, 'An individual has not started living until he can rise above the narrow confines of his individualistic concerns to the broader concerns of all humanity.' The Chamber of Commerce is an organization dedicated to growing and improving the businesses in the greater community to the benefit of all residents."

The North Brookhaven Chamber of Commerce serves Rocky Point, Sound Beach, Miller Place, Mount Sinai, Port Jefferson Station and Terryville.
