Farmingville, NY – On July 31, Councilman Dan Panico welcomed the Mastic Fire Department to Brookhaven Town’s ReGeneration Camp at Shirley Airport Park. The children, ranging in age from five to twelve years old, learned valuable lessons about fire safety. Firefighters gave the children toy fire helmets, coloring book packets highlighting fire safety and showed them how their firetruck is used to fight fires.

Councilman Panico said, “It was great to see local youth interacting with volunteer members of the Mastic Fire Department, who provided campers with important information on fire safety.”
