Ryan's project was to finance and construct a cinder block planter box next to the entrance ramp for the Presbyterian Church of Moriches. The box is part of a beautification program as well as making the entrance to the church safer. Daniel's Eagle project was constructing shelves for "Helping Makes U Happy," an organization that was recently formed to help those in need throughout the community. Noah's project was to finance and construct a bookcase for the Suffolk County 7th Precinct SVU Children's Division third interview room. The bookcase allows more room in the area so that children are more comfortable.
