

Supervisor Romaine and Councilman Panico Dedicate Part of Shirley's McGraw Street as Jack O'Loughlin Street

posted on 6/16/2017 10:56:00 AM

Farmingville, NY – On June 13, Brookhaven Town Supervisor Ed Romaine (right) and Councilman Dan Panico (left) unveiled an honorary street sign at the corner of McGraw Street and Oak Avenue in Shirley in honor and memory of the late Jack O'Loughlin. Mr. O'Loughlin was the founder of Bay Gas Service, former owner of the South Shore Press and a director of the Chamber of Commerce of Mastic Shirley. Jack is fondly remembered by family, friends, fellow chamber members and business owners as a man who generously and unselfishly gave of himself to a variety of community organizations. The street sign was officially unveiled by his son John O'Loughlin (center) and family during the special ceremony.

Division of Public Information * Office of the Supervisor

One Independence Hill • Farmingville • NY 11738 • Phone 631-451-6595