Farmingville, NY - On April 12, Councilman Kevin LaValle (center) attended the Farmingville Fire Department's Annual Installation Dinner at Atlantis Marine World in Riverhead. During the event, Councilman LaValle honored members for their service to the Farmingville area. Pictured with Councilman LaValle are Ex-Chief Norman Neill (left) and Ex-Chief Ronald Magagna (right), who were honored for 50 years of service to the department.

"It was an honor to thank the members of the Farmingville Fire Department for their service to the community," said Councilman LaValle. "They respond to hundreds of calls each year and put themselves in harm's way to save lives and protect property, and for this we should all be grateful."
