"I am grateful for the dedication shown by George R. Rehn, Donna Boeckel, and Ron Schlumph to their respective civic organizations," said Councilwoman Cartright. "The civic groups are vital to my ability to effectively perform my job as Councilwoman as they constantly inform my office of matters of importance to the residents that I serve."

"I would like to congratulate all of those recognized for their contributions to the Brookhaven business community," said Councilman LaValle, "I look forward to continuing to work together with all of the members of the coalition to preserve a healthy environment for businesses within the Town of Brookhaven."

"It was my great pleasure to attend the Brookhaven Coalition of Chambers of Commerce's very successful Awards Dinner. Businesses within Brookhaven are creative and diverse. Congratulations to all the award winners," stated Councilwoman Kepert.

"The Brookhaven Chamber of Commerce event was very successful and I'm proud to have attended to hear the stories of business growth and the resurgence of interest in doing business in Brookhaven," commented Deputy Supervisor Dan Panico. "Congratulations to all of the Chambers and their honorees, you are truly the fabric of our economy."
