Farmingville, NY - On December 4, Councilman Kevin LaValle, returning to familiar venue, spoke at Centereach High School. The Councilman had the pleasure of addressing 75 students in grades 9-12 from Gene Moreno and Christine Staker's Leadership Classes.

During the lively give-and-take, the Councilman spoke with the students about pressing youth issues, as well as fostering conversation on what concerns and suggestions they had.

Councilman LaValle said, "It was great to be back at my alma mater and I was quite impressed with the participation and interest level of the students. Encouraging these channels of open dialogue with our youth is particularly important given that they will be our future lead."
