Farmingville, NY – Councilman Dan Panico recently attended the annual Town Hall Forum at the Eastport South Manor High School auditorium in Manorville. The event was sponsored by the Eastport South Manor School District’s High School Social Studies Department. Councilman Panico was joined by Supervisor Ed Romaine and New York State Assemblyman Fred Thiele for the forum where they were asked a series of questions by students regarding issues important to youth. Afterwards, Councilman Panico had the opportunity to meet one-on-one with students to discuss his career choice in government.
