Farmingville, NY – Brookhaven Town Supervisor Ed Romaine and Councilman Dan Panico recently attended the Eagle Court of Honor ceremony for Thomas Feil from Troop 221 in Manorville. The event was held at the Manorville Fire Department. In order to become an Eagle Scout – the highest rank in scouting – a scout must first work his way through all previous Boy Scout ranks while completing certain requirements such as earning required merit badges, holding a leadership position within the troop, and completing a community service project. For his community project, Thomas constructed a fence at the Eastport Bible Church so that parishioners can safely enjoy outdoor church-related activities. In addition to scouting, Thomas is an active member of the National Honor Society as president and vice-president, is a varsity athlete, a Youth Ambassador for the Diabetes Juvenile Research Program and an AP Scholar with Distinction.
