Farmingville, NY – Brookhaven Town Councilman Dan Panico recently participated in a workshop with members of Center Moriches Middle School's National Junior Honor Society in which they constructed oyster cages. The cages which will be installed in Moriches Bay sometime this summer by the environmental nonprofit organization, the Moriches Bay Project. This group is dedicated to improving the water quality of Moriches Bay through oyster farming and eelgrass plantings. Councilman Panico has been an advocate of the Moriches Bay Project and was instrumental in helping the group install its first oyster cages in the Brookhaven side of the bay in the summer of 2015.
