Farmingville, NY – Farmingville, NY - On January 30, Supervisor Romaine (right) and Councilman Panico (left) joined with the Rotary Club of Shirley and the Mastics at Sunset Harbor in East Patchogue to honor Beth Wahl (center) as their Woman of the Year.

Beth is very active in the Mastic Shirley Community where she has served as President of the William Floyd Community Summit since its inception in 1998. She also serves as President of the Chamber of Commerce of the Mastics and Shirley, as well as Secretary of the Atlantic Community Activity Center. She is a member of the Town of Brookhaven's Airport Advisory Committee and also serves as a member of Governor Cuomo's New York Rising Community Reconstruction Program Task Force. She is a member of: the Tri-Hamlet Community Day Committee and the Career and Technology Advisory Board at William Floyd High School a former member of the Super Storm Sandy Relief Committee. As the Shirley representative for the Town of Brookhaven's Caithness Committee, Beth was able to obtain much needed funding for community organizations and to purchase a van for Colonial Youth and Family services, pagers for the Shirley Ambulance Company, items for after-school programs, and assistance with the creation of the William Floyd Armed Forces Memorial. In 2013, Beth was chosen as Grand Marshal of the Mastic Shirley Christmas Parade as a result of all of her community service.
