Farmingville, NY – Brookhaven Town Councilman Dan Panico and fellow board members recently congratulated student musicians from William Floyd High School for being recognized by the New York State School Music Association (NYSSMA) for musical excellence. Calvin Aracnibia [All-State Wind Ensemble] Saisha Hameed [All-State Mixed Chorus] Sarah Mazzarella [All-State Women’s Chorus] and Scott Sottung [All-State Mixed Chorus] will each represent William Floyd in their respective divisions at the annual Winter Conference to be held in Rochester, December 3-6. Councilman Panico praised the students for their hard work and dedicated efforts, as well as their teachers, Michael Cordaro and Barbara D’Orio, by presenting them with Certificates of Recognition.
