Farmingville, NY – Brookhaven Town Councilman Dan Panico took the opportunity to play a game of chess with some of his younger constituents during the annual Fall Fair and Festival, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce of the Moriches in downtown Center Moriches. Councilman Panico, accompanied by his son, Grant, guided his younger opponents throughout the game, providing them with some helpful tips.

“I sincerely enjoyed playing chess with these children. It’s a great game that challenges our minds. I am happy to share my love of the game with the younger generation and I was pleased to spend time talking to constituents about our community.”
