Farmingville, NY - Brookhaven Town Supervisor Ed Romaine and Councilman Dan Panico recently attended the official key presentation ceremonies for two first-time home buyers who were able to purchase homes thanks to Habitat for Humanity of Suffolk and its many corporate and community sponsors.

The first key was presented to the Keys-Collins family in the Village of Mastic Beach, and the second to the Madaia family in Shirley. Both families were intimately involved in the year-long construction of their homes, with each dedicating at least 300 hours of service.

Supervisor Romaine and Councilman Panico congratulated the new homeowners, commending them for their tenacity in achieving the American Dream of home ownership.
