Farmingville, NY - At the June 18 Town Board meeting, Councilman Daniel Panico and the Town Board honored Eastport South Manor (ESM) Varsity softball team and Eastport South Manor Girls lacrosse team for their season accomplishments.

The ESM Girls Varsity softball team won both the Suffolk County and Long Island Championships, finishing with a 24-3 overall record, the most wins in program history. The lacrosse team won the New York State Class B championship, defeating Somers High School 15-8.

"Winning a championship is a great achievement that these young women will remember for the rest of their lives," said Councilman Panico. "I applaud both teams for their accomplishments and wish them best of luck in the future."
