Farmingville, NY - - On June 7, Councilman Dan Panico attended the Mastic-Moriches-Shirley Community Library to honor graduating students of the library's literacy program who participated in the citizenship classes and recently became new United States citizens. The program helps residents learn to read, write and speak English. Pictured with the new citizens are (back row, left to right) William Toranzo, representing Assemblyman Dean Murray, Assemblyman Fred Thiele, Councilman Panico and Suffolk County Legislator Kate Browning.
