Farmingville, NY – Farmingville, NY – On January 28, Councilman Michael Loguercio was honored by the Longwood Central School District Board for his 12 years of service. Prior to being elected to the Brookhaven Town Board, Councilman Loguercio was on the school board from July 2004 to January 2016 and was Board President for four years and Vice President for three years. The board presented the Councilman with an inscribed plaque expressing their best wishes and sincere gratitude for his dedicated service.

Councilman Loguercio said, “My time on the school board was an extremely rewarding experience that afforded me the opportunity to serve the public and assist in molding the lives of so many youngsters. I will cherish the memories forever.”
