Farmingville, NY – Farmingville, NY – On January 28, Councilman Michael Loguercio (kneeling, front left) honored the Longwood High School Varsity Football Team for their championship season. The Longwood “Lions” captured both the Suffolk County Division 1 Championship and the Long Island Championship Class 1 Title. It was the school’s third Class 1 title. Also pictured with the team, coaches and administration is NY Assemblyman Dean Murray (standing, fourth from left).

Councilman Loguercio, a former Trustee and Past President of the Longwood School Board, said “I congratulate the student athletes and coaching staff for their championship season. It’s an accomplishment that the entire community can be proud of. This team has proven that hard work, good sportsmanship and a ‘never give up’ attitude are the keys to success on the gridiron.”
