Farmingville, NY – On August 17, Councilman Michael Loguercio (second from right) attended the "Prayer and Praise in the Park" event held at the Town of Brookhaven's Granny Road Park in Gordon Heights. The Councilman donated more than 30 backpacks filled with school supplies to help with their supply drive for the youth in the community. The event brought residents, local churches, youth groups and community organizations together to help bring unity with prayer and peaceful discussions of encouragement.

"Gordon Heights is a close knit community and I commend Melinda Tucker and the Mount Olive Baptist Church for organizing this very special family event," said Councilman Loguercio. "It was extremely inspirational to see everyone come together to make the day such a big success."
