Farmingville, NY – Recently, Supervisor Ed Romaine (left) and Councilman Michael Loguercio (right) were in Medford to celebrate the groundbreaking of the future Dairy Queen on the corner of Route 112 and Horseblock Road in Medford. This new business, which is owned by sisters Michelle Robey and Patricia DeMint (center), will provide many jobs to the community and will include indoor seating for 57 customers, patio seating and a convenient drive thru window.
